

AIBA President visited location of future Boxing Academy in Assisi

Description

The European Boxing Academy will be established in Assisi, Italy. The official agreement was signed during the visit of AIBA President Mr. Umar Kremlev, which gave the official start of the foundation.

AIBA President went to see the location where the Boxing Academy will be placed. The place is going to become a boxing cluster, including the museum of boxing arranged by the Italian Boxing Federation.

The Academy will include theory and practice courses for athletes and coaches.

Moreover, AIBA President had a training session with the Italian national boxing team.

‘Now AIBA is rapidly changing. Our main task is to effect massive development of boxing in every country and to grow up new champions. Athletes, coaches and heads of the National Federations are the most important persons for AIBA,’ Mr. Kremlev claimed before the training.

‘New academy is one of many important steps which we are doing for the sake of development of boxing,’ he added.
